My fascination with the visual arts came around at a very young age, and after starting my professional career working in the design industry, I soon moved on to studying Film and theatre. I then started working as an Assistant Director in the feature film industry in London, working with some of the most acclaimed directors such as Alejandro Almenabar (Agora), Lee Tamahori (The Devils Double), Dustin Hoffman (Quartet), Joe Wright (Anna Karenina), and many more.

After gaining invaluable lessons in the process of filmmaking and its industry, I spent the past five years producing and directing the experimental 2 min short film 'Duende', The award winning short film 'Pardon the intrusion' starring Sara Kestelmann, and the most recent dark comedy short 'Snug as a Bug', which will be used as a calling card for her debut feature 'Happy Birthday Mrs Shine'. Since completing my fourth short film 'O, My Friend', I am in development with another short 'Lightning tree' Written by Danielle Wager, developing another feature script called 'Shelter' - about an orphan boy coming across a community hidden in the subterranea of London, and a high-end drama series with the writers Andy McCormick and Richard Webb.
